

Single Course Application Information

What are Single Courses?

Single courses are subjects from degree programs, available to you even if you're not enrolled as a university student. You take the same classes and complete the same assessment tasks as RMIT University students.

What else do I need to know?

- Further information including timetables, fees and pre-requisites are available at rmit.edu.au/study-with-us/single-courses
- Please ensure you satisfy prerequisites prior to applying.
- All courses require approval from the RMIT University course coordinator before your application can be finalised. This step in the application process is handled by RMIT University and is based on information provided at the time of application.
- International applicants must have a visa valid with unlimited study rights for the duration of the single course. Enrolling in a single course will not make you eligible for a student visa.
- RMIT international students are not eligible to enrol in single courses. Please verify your enrolment process with your RMIT University School.
- If you are a current local RMIT student you must submit written approval from your RMIT University School to enrol in a single subject.
- Supporting documentation must be supplied including:
 - i. Completed Single Course Enrolment and Statistical Data Form
 - ii. Evidence of satisfaction of prerequisites (eg. transcripts)
 - iii. Citizenship supporting documentation (eg passport, birth certificate).
 - iv. Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) check online.immi.gov.au/evo/firstParty?actionType=query
- On completion of a single course, RMIT University will issue a result statement confirming your achievement.
- Applications will not be processed unless all required information and full payment is provided.

Single Course Terms and Conditions

1. There may be a limited number of enrolments available for some courses. In those cases, applications are processed in order of receipt.
2. All applications are subject to RMIT University approval. If successful, you will be issued a tax invoice. Course fees will not be processed for unsuccessful applications.
3. You may cancel your enrolment by completing and lodging a Single Course Cancellation Form before the RMIT University census date.
4. Refunds will only be credited to the original funding source or via other means as agreed by RMIT University.
5. There will be no deferrals or transfers, including any requests to transfer to another single course or semester.
6. We do not warrant that your home institution will grant any exemptions or credits to you for the course you undertake with us.
7. We may cancel a course at any time before the course starts. If we cancel a course, we will refund you in full as soon as practicable after the cancellation.
8. Our privacy policy outlines information relating to the collection and handling of your personal information by us. A copy of the policy is available on our website and to you on request.
9. Nothing in these terms and conditions will affect your statutory rights, and nothing in these terms and conditions will limit or exclude our liability for death or personal injury arising through negligence, fraudulent misrepresentation, or anything else that cannot be excluded or limited by us by law.
10. To the extent permitted by law, we are not liable for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages or otherwise (including without limitation loss of income or revenue, loss of business, loss of profits or contracts, loss of opportunity, loss of anticipated savings, loss of data, loss of goodwill), however arising and whether caused by tort, breach of contract or otherwise, even if we have been advised of the possibility of such damages.
11. Promotional codes may only be redeemed once per person during the relevant promotional period to provide a course fee discount. The total amount of all applicable discounts may not exceed 25 per cent of the course fee. You must tell us prior to payment if you are eligible for any discounts.

RMIT Privacy Statement

RMIT is committed to safe guarding student privacy and requires all students to read and understand the following privacy statement.

RMIT University is providing this notice because the University has sought your personal information. RMIT requires this information so it can fully and properly administer your enrolment in accordance with its policies and procedures. Information may also be used for related secondary purposes such as informing students about:

- career opportunities or future programs that may be of interest
- events or alumni activities following your graduation
- arts, sports or leisure activities that may be of interest.

Student information will also be used to start and operate externally hosted applications used by RMIT as part of its education provision, for example (but not limited to) Google, Blackboard, online courses and pre-enrolment testing providers, where applicable. Any information used or disclosed will be limited to that necessary to effectively operate the service or application. Contracted service providers and the recipient organisations are required to provide the same privacy safeguards as RMIT.

Data on students' usage of learning support and management systems such as (but not limited to) Blackboard, the RMIT network and library systems, may be used by the University to identify and contact students who may need additional support in their studies, or may be provided in aggregated form to RMIT University staff to support decision-making on improvement of learning and teaching.

RMIT is required under law to collect and report enrolment details to Australian Government and Victorian Government agencies, including the Departments of Education and Training, Centrelink, the Department of Immigration and Border Protection, and the Australian Taxation Office.

Data, including results, relating to students studying at locations outside of Australia, may also be released to partner organisations for the purpose of administering enrolments and program delivery in those locations. Use and disclosure of this information, other than to the respective partner organisation, will only be in accordance with this privacy statement, unless required by an Australian or local law.

Student data may also be accessed for conducting duly authorised research, or to seek specific consent to participate in such research. In such instances the identity of the individuals will not be disclosed in any resulting report or publication unless specifically authorised by the individual concerned.

Information may also be released to external agencies or government departments/agencies to facilitate bulk mail-outs, debt collection activities and conduct student satisfaction surveys. These organisations are required to provide the same privacy safeguards as RMIT.

RMIT discloses awards verification information, specifically the program name and conferral/graduation date, on request, to prevent the use of fraudulent RMIT qualifications. Where further information is sought authorisation from the student is required.

You have the right to request access to and/or correct any personal information concerning you that is held by RMIT. For further information or enquiries please contact RMIT Connect at <http://www.rmit.edu.au/students/connect>. Complex access requests may require a formal application under the Freedom of Information Act 1982. Such requests should be directed to the University Freedom of Information Officer at <http://www.rmit.edu.au/about/governance-and-management/governance/freedom-of-information/making-a-request/>.

More information

RMIT periodically refines the student privacy statement to reflect appropriate information flows. The overall level of privacy protection is maintained when changes or inclusions are made. If you have a query about your personal information and the way it is handled, please check online for the current privacy statement.

For more details on how information is handled at RMIT:

- refer to the RMIT Privacy and Data Protection Policy

Statement of Student Responsibilities

As fully independent and active learners, RMIT students are expected to assume responsibility for the choices they make in relation to their academic program.

At the time of enrolment all RMIT students must agree to the following statements, which together comprise the Statement of student responsibilities:

Enrolment

1. The information I have provided at enrolment is true and correct and that I am responsible for correcting any errors made during the enrolment process.
2. I must comply with University regulations and policies at <http://www.rmit.edu.au/policies>, the published requirements relating to my program and any directions given to me by the University regarding my enrolment. I have read the official Handbook (program guide) and related course guides at <http://www.rmit.edu.au/students/program-course-info> for the program into which I am enrolling.
3. I acknowledge that RMIT University reserves the right to cancel or amend my enrolment if I do not adhere to the requirements listed in this statement.

Communication

4. I acknowledge that official communications from the University will be sent to me via my RMIT student email account, or via announcements in myRMIT, or by post to my current mailing address, or by SMS (and to my personal email account for all graduation communication and it is my responsibility to monitor regularly this communication). RMIT will not extend or vary a deadline on the basis that I did not receive or read information sent to me.
5. I must keep my personal information such as contact details (including personal email, mobile phone number, emergency contact details and, current mailing address) up-to-date for the duration of my enrolment and during periods of approved leave.

Student Records

Where appropriate, I authorise RMIT University to:

- obtain details of my past results from other educational institutions and professional bodies;
- reproduce, communicate, compare and archive my assessments for the purpose of detecting plagiarism.

Declaration

I will take personal responsibility for my behaviour and act fairly, honestly, courteously and with integrity as a member of the RMIT community.

I acknowledge and agree to the terms described in the RMIT privacy statement and this Statement of student responsibilities.
